Military Ordinariate

(Vicariatus Castrensis)

30 East fifty-first st., New York, N. Y., 10022. ✆ 212-355-3457.

The Military Vicariate was canonically established on a permanent basis by a decree of the Sacred Consistorial Congregation dated September 8, 1957.

Comprises: 1. Secular and religious priests who are called on an habitual basis to the office of military chaplain for the armed forces of the United States of America; also those called on a temporary basis, during the time that they render their services. 2. Priests who are chaplains of hospitals commonly called "Veterans Administration Hospitals and Domiciliaries." 3. All the faithful: who actually serve in the armed forces of the land, air and sea: who, organized in military fashion, pertain in any way whatsoever to these same armed forces; or who are bound by the laws made for these armed forces. 4. The faithful who serve under the banners of those forces commonly known as Coast Guard, National Guard, Air National Guard or Civil Air Patrol, as long as they are living in common in a military manner. 5. The families of those listed under N. 3, namely, the wives, children, servants, relatives who habitually live with them in this country or who accompany them in any manner whatsoever outside their homeland; likewise the Catholic family of a non-Catholic serviceman under the same circumstances. 6. All the faithful of both sexes, whether they are members of a religious institute or not, who are attached to hospitals, military schools, the above-mentioned Veterans Administration Hospitals and Domiciliaries and reside there. 7. All the faithful of both sexes who dwell on military bases or in homes reserved by the civil government for military personnel and their families. On October 17, 1957 the Sacred Consistorial Congregation decreed that in all countries where the American forces are found, the following persons are subjects of the Military Vicar: a. Those who in any manner pertain officially to the Military Government; b. Those who officially accompany or assist the Military Government or the Government of Occupation, as well as those who are employed by the Military Government in an administrative capacity; c. All persons who are employed by the Government of the United States, even though they do not strictly pertain to Military Government or the Government of Occupation and all persons engaged in diplomatic and similar Missisons in foreign nations; d. The members of families of the above mentioned persons residing with them in occupied territories.
